PRICE 2 CENTS.

When life's autumn comes, women worn out by the burdens of motherhood, yet shrink from that second "change of life," which will banish these burdens forever. They fear a change in form, in feature, in personal attractiveness.

Such fears are largely unwarranted by the effects which this change produces in many women. But no woman need let these fears fret her. Those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription do not suffer from the change of life either in face, form or feelings as do other women. This fact is due to the intimate connection of the general health of the organs peculiarly feminine. By preserving the health of these organs, and relieving the system from the debilitating drains, diseases and inflammations which sap its health, "Favorite Prescription" paves the way for this natural change to come in Nature's way, without the loss of capacity to please others or personal inability to enjoy life. "Your Favorite Prescription" brought me safely through that difficult period, called "change of life," writes Mrs. Mary E. Ensign, of 34 E. Ankeny St., Portland, Oregon. "This change made a very unpleasant disturbance through my entire system. I had hot and cold flashes, sick headaches, constipated, frustrated, nervous and irritable. My appetite was lost for days and I was unable to eat a fair meal. My mind recommended me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it made a great change for the better. Within two weeks the unpleasant feelings had disappeared. I have a husband and eight children so have the care of a large family but was able to attend to my household duties without any difficulty and passed the period without any more trouble. I can recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' as a grand medicine for women."

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain as long as possible one's youthful appearance. It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxuriant growth of hair. The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness. New's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as well as delightful to use. Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as a Dandruff cure. Accent no substitute—there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Kodol
Like a Comet
In the sky comes the star of health to the weak and weary despondent dyspeptic, curing all stomach troubles and digestive disorders.
famous remedy does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure
supplies the natural juices of the stomach and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia, and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

THRILLING EXPERIENCES AT SEA.

Compelled to lash themselves to the masts, and later cut their way through the ice on deck, for three days, while terrific gales threatened to send them to the bottom, is the terrible experience of the crew of the Norwegian steamer Ceylon, which arrived at Philadelphia yesterday from Newfoundland. The vessel when she arrived bore many evidences of her hard battle with the elements. Boats and rails were smashed to kindling wood, and her ice-land deck and rigging showed how severe had been the winter blasts she had encountered. The vessel is commanded by Captain Johansen. He reports that on December 24 and 25 the Ceylon ran into a series of heavy gales, which made their voyage extremely perilous, and caused the crew much suffering. Ice sleet and snow covered the vessel and interfered seriously with the outlook, compelling the steamer to proceed with great caution, while winds of almost hurricane proportions lashed the sea into a fury and held the vessel at their mercy. When Christmas Day dawned, instead of enjoying the festival the suffering men were compelled to labor for their lives. Progress on deck was almost impossible, and those who were compelled by their duties to be on deck lashed themselves to the masts and rigging, and saw their boats crunched like chips while they were helpless. Wave after wave dashed over the decks, only to freeze as they fell, and when the storm finally abated, so thickly coated was the vessel that it was necessary for the worn-out seamen to cut away these with axes. Three whole days were spent thus, and tons of ice thrown overboard before the vessel was again under full control of Captain Johansen and his men. When the storms had abated, such temporary repairs as were possible were made, and the Ceylon ended her journey without further mishap.

Of all the remarkable tales of suffering on the seas nothing excels that brought on the North German Lloyd steamer Kohn yesterday by Capt. William Yetman, of the Nova Scotia schooner Harold, who, with a crew of five men, were snatched from the very jaws of death by a heroic volunteer crew of life-savers from the steamer. Had the rescue been deferred 12 hours the men would have perished, as there is no reasonable doubt that the water-logged Harold went to the bottom in a terrific storm that followed shortly after the schooner crew had been placed in safety on the steamer's deck. Struck by a waterspout while lying in a gale the schooner was wrecked almost under, and would have sunk instantly but for the resourcefulness of her crew. With tarpaulins over her splintered bow and a huge chain cable hove around her the vessel was held together enough to float by the incessant work at the pumps by the men. For 17 days they thus struggled with death as the penalty of a let up; and, during that time not a morsel had they to eat but some mouldy ship biscuit and some wine found in the captain's cabin, for the great wall of water that almost wiped them out stripped the deck clean of everything, including the galley and the provisions. And yet through all this terrible experience not a life was lost but a pet dog, and he died by being crushed between the sides of the derelict and the lifeboat while being transferred.

Czar Warned by Kaiser.

A curious illustration of the Czar's inaccessibility to counsel was mentioned to a newspaper correspondent in Vienna yesterday in a quarter which cannot be suspected of Germanophilism. Some ten days before the outbreak of the war in the far East the German Emperor, alarmed by the information received concerning the respective strength and degree of preparedness of the Russian and Japanese forces, telegraphed to the Czar in approximately the following terms: "I beg of you to reflect before engaging in a war with Japan. From very precise information which I have received concerning the forces of which Japan can dispose, the state of her preparations, and also the forces of which you can dispose and maintain in Manchuria, I have doubts about the result of a war. I beg of you, therefore, to think well before definitely refusing the Japanese conditions."

To this appeal the Czar is said to have replied that the Japanese conditions had not been refused, but that "in any case all necessary measures already have been taken to insure the triumph of our arms."

Nogi's Prisoners.
According to General Nogi's latest reports it appears that General Stoessel, instead of having "a mere handful" of men and nearly all his officers killed or disabled, the force he has handed over to the Japanese numbers 48,000, including some 15,000 sick and wounded. General Nogi also finds at the surrendered garrison 8 generals, 3 admirals, 57 colonels and majors, 151 captains and commanders and 700 to 800 other military and naval officers. Numbers of volunteers are included in the 4,000 non-combatants.

It is reported that large bodies of Russian troops are arriving in northeastern Korea, with the evident intention of moving into Manchuria with the object of attacking the Japanese right and rear at the Shikhe.

The Japanese are concentrating around Benshu, 30 miles northeast of Liaoyang, and there are indications of a movement against the Russian right.

Abattoir Changes Hands.
The Washington Abattoir, which was built more than 10 years ago by a stock company in which Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington capital was interested, was yesterday transferred by the Abattoir Company to Andreas Luehr, Michael A. Keane, and Nicholas Auth, as trustees, for a stated consideration of $37,500. These gentlemen represent the T. P. Keane Company, the A. Loeffler Sausage Product Company and the M. Auth Produce Company, which will in the future use the abattoir property jointly. The sale is the outcome of a meeting of the stockholders late in December. Under the terms of the transfer the purchasers have taken up a second mortgage of $12,500, which would have fallen due on April 1, and agree to take up another mortgage of 25,000, which will be due in four years.

Night Was Her Terror.
"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind. "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 35 pounds. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store."

While there is life there is hope.
I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shultz, Highway, N. J.

Cream Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The balm does not irritate or cause swelling. Sold by druggists at 50c, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 55 Warren St., New York.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

No More Stomach Troubles.
All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Eskine, of Allentown, Mich., says, "I suffered heartburn and stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.
